III. RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

	TYPE OF RECRUITMENT INITIATIVE (MENU SELECTION)	BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITY
1	Internship Program	The stations' internship program allows qualified students the opportunity to gain hands-on experience in a functioning broadcast television environment. Guidelines have been established to ensure that the internship experience is of the utmost value to the students while also meeting station needs. From January to May 2007, a student from Trinity Christian Academy interned in the Promotions Department. This intern put together promotional events and casting calls, went out on commercial shoots with Creative Services, helped in producing public service announcements, and scheduled promotional spots for both WNCF and WBMM. During Summer 2007, a student from Alabama State University interned in the Sports Department and gained experience shooting, editing, writing, and producing live sports programming. By the conclusion of his internship, this student acquired detailed knowledge concerning how sports programming is put together and how a TV station is run. During First Semester 2007, a student from Troy State University and a student from Trenholm Tech interned in the Master Control department. These interns ran programming on-air, put commercials in programs and Odetics, monitored on-air, and recorded programs.
2	Job Fair	On February 8, 2007, our General Manager, Master Control Supervisor, and Promotions Manager participated in a job fair at Faulkner University. Station participants discussed job openings and internships at the stations with interested candidates and handed out applications.
3	Job Fair	On January 23, 2007, the stations' General Manager, Promotions Manager, and Business Manager participated in a career fair at Auburn University – Montgomery. Station participants spoke to individuals interested in employment at the stations, handed out information about the company, discussed internship opportunities, distributed promotional items, and provided interested parties with job applications.

4	Scholarship Program	WNCF is a partner with the Alabama Broadcasters Association's Education Foundation, which was established to further broadcast studies in the state of Alabama. Alabama Broadcasters Association scholarships are awarded through the foundation. This year, WNCF publicized the scholarship program via on-air announcements.
5	Event or program sponsored by educational institution relating to career opportunities in broadcasting	On March 15, 2007, our General Manager gave a presentation to a Broadcast Advertising and Sales class at Alabama State University. The General Manager spoke to the class about careers in broadcast sales, marketing, and promotions; fielded questions from students; and spent one-on-one time discussing broadcasting with some of the students.
6	Event or program sponsored by educational institution relating to career opportunities in broadcasting	On February 2, 2007, the stations hosted a student from Lee High School interested in the broadcast industry. The student toured the station and then shadowed one person in each department, including Promotion, Sales, Production/Creative Services, Programming, and Master Control. Station staffers also answered students' questions about the broadcast industry.
7	Event or program sponsored by educational institution relating to career opportunities in broadcasting	On January 31, 2007, the stations' on-air personality and News Director spoke to approximately 120 students at Career Day at Brewbaker Junior High School. The presentation focused on various career opportunities in television broadcasting.
8	List upper-level openings in a job bank or newsletter of media trade groups whose membership includes substantial participation of women and minorities	WNCF and WBMM post each job opening in the Alabama Broadcasters Association job bank.
